

The Technical Studies Department is a diverse entity consisting of professionals who possess many unique qualities. While all its teachers do not share a common subject area, they are all integral parts in achieving the overall aim which is to create well rounded students who are suitably skilled to work in almost any area of the Technical field.

Vision: To create well rounded, technically savvy students who are qualified to work in almost any area of the Technical field.

Mission: To equip students with the Technical skills necessary to provide promote long-term employment and profitability in the World at large.

Motto: Skill is Power

Subject Areas:

First and Second Forms

Design Technology

CSEC

Building and Furniture Technology
Electrical and Electronics Technology
Mechanical Engineering
Technical Drawing

CAPE

Building and Mechanical Drawing
Electrical and Electronics Technology

Local

Automotive Studies
Construction Trades
Electrical Practices
Metal Fabrication